

Call for papers

Journal of Acute Disease (homepage: www.jadweb.org) is now calling for papers on all aspects of acute disease. The Journal is a peer-reviewed, scientific publication. It advances knowledge in the field of pre-hospital and hospital emergency medicine, intensive and critical care medicine, and disaster rescue medicine.

The Journal is invited on the varied dimensions of acute disease, including, but not limited to:

- Preclinical and clinical studies on cardiopulmonary-cerebral resuscitation
- Acute and critical diseases, including critical acute cardiovascular disease
- Sepsis
- Severe infections
- Multiple organ failure
- Sudden cardiac arrest
- Acute trauma
- Acute poisoning
